Membership Information

Our mission is to increase the quantity and quality of charitable planned gifts in our community. We accomplish this through:

- quality education
- increased awareness
- networking opportunities

We are a professional member organization that serves non-profit development professionals, legal and financial advisors, and philanthropists. We welcome anyone involved in charitable gift planning.

CPGR serves individuals throughout the state of Colorado and the Rocky Mountain region.

MEMBER BENEFITS

What makes CPGR one of the largest and most progressive planned giving councils in the country? Outstanding speakers who provide insight on current and relevant topics. Collaboration among our membership — for profit and not for profit professionals working together. Dedicated volunteers who serve on our board and committees.

OUTREACH

No need to drive to Denver to enjoy our programs! CPGR is committed to serving the entire state. Luncheon, Brown Bag and Technical programs are available through web casting to locations outside of the Denver area.

Contact us to find out how to have these programs available in your area.

LEAVE A LEGACY

LEAVE A LEGACY® is a national effort to increase public awareness around charitable estate giving. The primary goal is to help donors better understand how an estate gift can profoundly affect a favorite charity.

NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES

CPGR recognizes the importance of providing opportunities at which for-profit and non-profit professionals can interact on an informal basis. We provide many occasions in conjunction with our programs all year.

Another great way to network is by joining one of our committees! We are always looking for great volunteers to lend a hand. Check out the various committees on our website by clicking on “Opportunities.”

FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

New in 2009, the Fellowship program introduces those new in development to the field of planned giving and the resources and programs of CPGR. This two-year program includes membership in CPGR and registration to several programs during the year.

For more information on the Fellowship Program or any of our programs and services, call Tina Drum at 303-932-6168 or visit our website at www.cpgr.org.

OTHER MEMBER BENEFITS

- Discounts on all Education Programs
- Scholarship Opportunities
- Discounted Membership in Partnership for Philanthropic Planning (PPP-formerly NCPG)
- Online Membership Directory
- Volunteer Opportunities
- Job Announcement Notifications
