

Daniel Rich has worked more than 30 years in the trust business and is the Executive Vice President and Trust Department Manager of Steele Street Bank & Trust. Dan and his associates established the Trust Department at Steele Street Bank & Trust in 2007. He previously established and managed another trust business in Denver beginning in 1992. He is a licensed attorney with a law degree from the University of Denver, College of Law, and an MBA in finance from the University of Colorado. He also completed a number of post-graduate courses in the LLM tax program at the University of Denver.