Plenary Speakers

Kathryn W. Miree, President — Kathryn W. Miree & Associates, Inc.

Kathryn W. Miree is president of Kathryn W. Miree & Associates, Inc., a consulting firm that works with boards and staff of nonprofits and foundations to develop or fine tune planned giving programs and endowments. She received her undergraduate degree from Emory University and her law degree from The University of Alabama School of Law. She is a past president of the National Committee on Planned Giving and a past president of the Alabama Planned Giving Council. She currently serves as Chair of the Editorial Advisory Committee of the Journal of Gift Planning and on the Editorial Advisory Boards of Planned Giving Today and Planned Giving Design Center and has served on the boards of many charitable organizations. Ms. Miree is a frequent lecturer, co-author of The Family Foundation Handbook with Jerry J. McCoy (CCH Publishers 2001) and author of The Professional Advisor's Guide to Planned Giving (CCH Publishers, 2001). Her clients include a variety of nonprofits and foundations across the country.

Tanya Howe Johnson, President & CEO – Partnership for Philanthropic Planning

Tanya Howe Johnson is president and CEO of the Partnership for Philanthropic Planning, whose members and local councils include more than 9,000 fundraisers and financial advisors involved in the process of helping donors plan and make major charitable gifts. During her 20 year tenure, PPP has developed the award-winning publication, The Journal of Gift Planning; successfully lobbied for IRA charitable rollover legislation, and created numerous industry standards and best practice models for charitable gift planning. In 2007 and 2008, Tanya was named to the NonProfit Times list of the 50 most powerful and influential leaders in the non-profit sector.

Why Attend?

CPGR brings national speakers right to your backyard!

Scholarships Available: Applications are available at www.cpgr.org. Application deadline is May 13, 2011.

Continuing Education: The committee has applied for Continuing Education Credits for attorneys, financial advisors, and CPAs.

CFRE™ Certification: An application for CFRE™ certification has been submitted and approval is anticipated.

Networking Opportunity: A Reception following the opening plenary program on Wednesday evening provides a great networking opportunity for development officers, estate planning professionals and the symposium speakers.

A fabulous venue with free parking! Meals and refreshments included with your registration fee.

Session Descriptions:

Essentials for Fundraising — These sessions may be best for those who need the planned giving basics or those who want to hear it again and learn it better. For many people, planned giving is an elephant in the room that they are hesitant to discuss. These sessions will address the elephant.

Donor/Client Relationships — These sessions may be best for those working with donors or clients and their families, and should be helpful to anyone who wants to hone conversation, relationship building, and listening skills.

Tools for Seasoned Advisors & Fundraisers — These sessions may be best for those seeking technical information and legal/financial education, and for those wanting to tackle some of the big issues in estate planning.
